29TH MARCH 2022 - CLUB NIGHT

President Philip holds the floor, watched by Don Ripper (back to camera), Adrian Rijs, Sandra Houghton, Rachel Strauss, and Colin Adams.

This evening's program was devoted to planning for coming events and reviewing our involvement with the Sale Music Festival.

For Rotary Race the Rubeena, members were asked to be on deck by 6.30am on Sunday and to download the Emergency App onto their phones. Rosters have been distributed and arrangements are in hand.

Alan Lewis talks about The Rubeena's 100th Birthday

Alan Lewis was congratulated on his contribution in promoting the event. He outlined the celebrations, post Rotary Race the Rubeena, for the 110th Birthday of The Rubeena. This has been organised in conjunction with Wellington Shire.

President Philip has sent out the Planning Application for the Wetlands Trail to members and invited feedback. Members have been invited to suggest names for the road between the Swing Bridge and the Field and Game. Historically, it appears to have been called Punt Lane, so the records need to be examined to clarify whether it should be re-named.

The Giant Book Sale is coming up in May, with three years supply of books from the Wellington Library service (plus whatever donations are received). Planning is well underway and publicity will soon start.

Alan Lewis, Kylie-Anne Rich, Nicole O'Connor, Keith Miller, Carmel Webb and Kerry McMillan

Our participation in the Sale Music Festival was reviewed. It was a great day with great weather. Kerry McMillan was commended for all her great work, Mike Smith thanked for his logistics work, and Nicole O'Connor for her hard work with the catering. A number of issues were raised, including the lack of Rotary branding, and the need for more detailed planning.

Next week's speaker is Yarram's representative for the Star of the South offshore windfarm project, Susan Mc Millan.

The following week, we will be going on an excursion to the newly re-opened Maffra Motor Museum (Gippsland Vehicle Collection) to see their new display – English Sports and Italian which includes two 1930 Alfa Romeos. The Motor Museum has had its roof replaced. After looking at the display, we will adjourn to Duart to share a meal with the Rotary Club of Maffra (see below for details).
