Guest Speakers: 3-minute talks from Colin and John C.

Our program tonight showcased again the wealth of talent within our own ranks.

Colin Adams spoke briefly of his working life after moving to Sale in 1987. After a stint at the Commonwealth Bank, Colin took up the role as Rates Administrator for the Wellington Shire and then Customer Services Manager covering emergency services. After a brief period in private enterprise, he then took up a position at Gippsland Water following up on non-payment of accounts. His experiences with Wellington Shire proved an invaluable grounding for this role.

According to Colin there are three types of debtors: those who won't pay, those who struggle to pay and those who can't pay. He took considerable pride in working out a plan for people to meet debts concentrating on personal contact rather than by phone.

Members followed up with lots of questions and amusing anecdote.

John Cartledge then updated the members on the latest Seed news and developments. Access to the facilities with the cooperation the new indigenous centre next door was proving particularly useful. More buildings behind the centre will be considered if required.

Ideas are being considered for further development for Seed towards the back of the tennis courts which may be limited by foul water under the tip coverage.

Seed is funded through till next March and are confident of acquiring further funding. Council has set aside funding for developing much needed new parking areas.

Seed is currently financially healthy and has been quite successful with obtaining grants for items such as art works and sunshades.

John's briefing again prompted some funny stories from member's experiences.

Raj reported that Andy is recovering well.
